

FISCAL NOTE

TO: Chief Clerk of the Senate
Chief Clerk of the House

FROM: James A. Davenport, Executive Director

DATE: February 8, 1996

SUBJECT: SB 3020 - HB 3005

This bill, if enacted, will make it unlawful for any individual or entity to make reference to 911 service in any advertisement. A violation of this provision will be a Class C misdemeanor punishable only by a fine.

The fiscal impact from enactment of this bill is estimated to be an increase in local government revenues due to the collection of fines from violators. However, such increase is estimated to be not significant.

This is to duly certify that the information contained herein is true and correct to the best of my knowledge.

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading "James A. Davenport". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first letters of the first and last names being capitalized and prominent.
